A Promise to Protect

The Diocese of Trenton is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors. If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the Diocesan Abuse Hotline: 888-296-2965 or via email at abuseline@dioceseoftrenton.org.

A Note From Our Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

We don't think enough about the Ascension. In fact, only those who pray the Rosary seem to think about it at all. Yet, it is a crucial part of Christ's mission and message. It is the culminating moment, the finale, the final whistle, the moment in which His victory will be enshrined in heaven for ever. Jesus ascends into heaven as the living sacrifice that will continue to be the bridge between God and humanity until the end of time.

His words at this moment, therefore, are critical. And what does He say? Two things. First, he sums up the message of salvation. He reminds His Apostles that He had come to earth in order to preach salvation, and then to make it into a reality by His suffering, death, and resurrection. Only because of Christ's preaching and passion is it possible for mankind to experience the salvation from sin and ignorance that they desire, the peace of soul that they yearn for.

Second, He gives His followers a job. He calls upon them to be witness of these things. They will not be able to carry out their witness all by themselves, they will need the Holy Spirit, and so He promises that at Pentecost they will be "clothed with power from on high." But then they are to go to "all the nations" as Christ's witnesses. So, in the Ascension of our Lord, we come face to face with the core of the entire Gospel: Christ's saving message being transmitted to all people through the witness of the Church.

Peace,
Fr. Mike

Lunch Convivium Resumes Next Sunday

We will not have a lunch Convivium today as it is Mother's Day. Please join us downstairs in the Church Hall after Mass next Sunday, May 19 for our weekly lunch Convivium. There is no charge, and it is a great opportunity for fellowship and fun! We also invite you to visit our Traditional Latin Mass showcase, which offers many items for donation.

Here is our upcoming Convivium schedule:

- Sunday, May 12: No Convivium (Mother's Day)
- Sunday, May 19: Convivium
- Sunday, May 25: No Convivium (Memorial Day weekend)
- Sunday, June 2: No Convivium (Parish Picnic weekend)

We are grateful to our Sacred Music Director Peter Carter, our Schola Cantorum, and our Choristers for today's beautiful Sacred Music! Beginning on Easter and throughout Paschaltide, the Vidi Aquam is chanted at the beginning of the Sunday, 12:30pm Traditional Latin Mass during the Sprinkling Rite, instead of the Asperges Me:

Vidi aquam egredientem de templo, a latere dextro, alleluia; et omnes, ad quos pervenit aqua ista, salvi facti sunt, et dicent, alleluia, alleluia.

I saw water flowing from the right side of the temple, alleluia; and all they to whom that water came were saved, and they shall say, alleluia, alleluia.

THE SUNDAY AFTER THE ASCENSION

READINGS:

1 Pt 4:7-11

JN 15:26-27; 16:1-4

V. Praised be Jesus Christ...

R. Now and forever!

Exáudi Dómine vocem meam qua clamávi ad te, allelúia; tibi dixit cor meum, quæsivi bultum tuum; vultum tuum, Dómine, requíram; ne advérstas fáciem tuam a me, allelúja, allelúja.

Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I cry to Thee, alleluia. My heart hath said to Thee: I have sought Thy face; Thy face, O Lord, I will seek: Turn not Thy face away from me, alleluia, alleluia. [Ps 26:7-9]

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, the Introit [entrance song] of today changes in character. The unbridled joy of the songs prior to the Ascension give way to a more plaintive quality. Jesus is returned to the Father, and we seek our Lord's face. Our humanness "misses" Jesus, and yet, we are "alleluia" people, for we trust in His promises.

The Epistle of today from Peter, and it leads with the cardinal virtue of prudence. The highest good that humans can attain in this world is to operate on right reason. Temperance and fortitude are virtues within ourselves, and justice is the virtue of giving to others their due. But it is prudence that permits us to maintain and exercise right reason to know how to practice the other virtues. To live a virtuous life, we must practice charity towards all, and this might be even heroic in some cases. But it is essential in all our affairs. Our words and actions, in prudence and charity, must redound to the glory of God. Our Gospel of today steps us back a bit from the observance of the Ascension we have just had on Thursday. A great source of division exists between the great Churches of the West [Catholic] and the East [Orthodox], with the principal cause is the progression of the Spirit. The former holds that the Spirit proceeds from the "Father and the Son"; the latter holds that the Spirit proceeds but from the Father. When one looks at the original Greek of the text one sees in John 15:26 "Όταν ἔλθῃ ὁ Παράκλητος, ὃν ἐγὼ πέμψω ὑμῖν παρὰ τοῦ Πατρὸς = "When comes the Helper whom I will send to you from the Father." Jesus is the intermediary agent, from His own lips. One would consider the matter settled - it makes sense, as Jesus is part of the Trinity - co-equal and co-eternal.

The Carmelite develops a charitable heart and resolve for virtue by seeking the face of the living God by through "contemplation." O.H.M. Teresa of Avila and O.H.F. John of the Cross are great mystical doctors of the Church, and they have inspired the Order to seek and find the face of God in all affairs and in every possible place. Teresa advises, "Know that even when you are in the kitchen, our Lord moves amidst the pots and pans." Catholic lay Faithful are invited to this way of life and are encouraged to live this kind of daily life. Wear the brown Scapular of Our Lady! To Jesus Christ be all glory, alleluia!

"... whatever his station or the kind of religious observance he has chosen, should live a life in allegiance to Jesus Christ— how, pure in heart and stout in conscience, he must be unswerving in the service of the Master..."
