A Note From Our Pastor

Very Rev. Michael Wallack

My Dear Parishioners,

The Liturgy of the Word this Sunday reminds us that life on earth is a short wait for our Lord's return. The Faith which guides our footsteps is "the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen" as we see in the Second Reading. By means of this theological virtue the Christian acquires a firm certainty in regard to our Lord's promises, and a possession - in advance - of the Divine gifts. Through Faith, we know with certainty two fundamental truths of human existence: that we are made for Heaven and therefore all else should be ordered and subordinated to this supreme end; and that our Lord wants to help us reach this end with an abundance of supernatural means. In his book, Reasons to Hope, G. Redondo writes,

"God is all-powerful. To Him everything is subject - the wind, the seas, health and sickness, the heavens and the earth ... He uses and disposes everything for the salvation of my soul and of all men. He does not fail to look after the good of each of His children, even those who seem most alone and abandoned. God places His strength at the service of the salvation and sanctification of men. Only the misuse of freedom can render God's help sterile. But forgiveness is always possible. It is always possible to open the doors to let hope enter in. God is all-powerful. He can do everything; He is our Father and He is Love."

Let us remember that our Lord is a God of mercy and generosity but it is our part to put vice behind us and begin to trust in His forgiveness and grace in the holy Sacrament of Confession. He loves us dearly but He does hold us accountable. We know this from today's Gospel when Jesus says, "You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

Peace,
Fr. Mike

Mass Schedule Change for August 11

On Monday, August 11 our daily Mass will be celebrated at 8:00am. There will not be a 7:00pm Mass. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will take place as scheduled beginning at Noon and ending with Benediction at 6:45pm.

Annual Missionary Appeal: Next Weekend - August 16-17

On August 16-17 we will welcome Ms. Pilar Acosta, President and Founder of the Hogar de Niños Semillas de Fe Foundation (Seeds of Faith, SDF), a non-profit organization working to protect, educate and uplift vulnerable children in the Dominican Republic. Ms. Acosta will speak at the Masses and we will have a second collection for this important missionary outreach. We thank you in advance for your generosity.

Ordinary Form Altar Server Opportunity

Altar Servers perform a unique ministry within the Church. Vatican II teaches us the Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life”. Aside from a priest or deacon, no other member of the parish community helps with preparation or is as close to the Eucharistic Celebration as an Altar Server. As such, altar service is vital to the Liturgy, and a gift to those who serve our Lord.

On August 2, 2006, Pope Benedict XVI addressed a group of Altar Servers and offered the following thoughts about this ministry “Dear Altar Servers, you are, in fact, already apostles of Jesus! When you take part in the Liturgy, by carrying out your altar service, you offer a witness to all. Your absorption, the devotion that wells up from your heart and is expressed in gestures, in song, in the responses: if you do it correctly and not absent-mindedly, then in a certain way your witness is one that moves people.”

Altar Serving has a rich history, and children have played a role of service dating back to the time of Jesus. In chapter 6 of the Gospel of John, Jesus feeds a crowd of 5,000. This was a true miracle in which we learn it was a boy who provided Jesus with the five loaves of bread and two fish that were used to feed the crowd.

Another example can be seen in the early Church when Christians in Rome celebrated Mass underground from fear of persecution. Those identified as Christian were placed in prison and condemned. It was unsafe for priests and adult Christians to bring Communion to these prisoners for risk of being caught. A young boy named Tarcisus pleaded with his Bishop to let him bring Communion to these prisoners, as he believed he would pass unnoticed. Tarcisus was ultimately permitted to do so and joyfully set out with the Blessed Sacrament pressed against his heart. Along the way some children asked him to join a game, but he declined. Tarcisus was soon identified as Christian, and martyred. Before he died, Tarcisus handed the Blessed Sacrament to a Christian soldier and asked him to carry God to the prisoners. This young boy became a Saint.

The opportunity to be part of this wonderful ministry for the Ordinary Form of the Mass is open to boys and girls who have received their first Holy Communion. In addition to this Sacramental requirement, Altar Servers must:

- * Have a strong desire to serve at the Altar with dignity and reverence
- * Be familiar with the Mass and able to participate in prayer and song
- * Attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and embrace the teachings of the Catholic Church
- Be willing to attend practices as scheduled

For all those interested in learning more about this important ministry, please contact Deacon Paul DeGrazia by email at pauldegrazia@gmail.com, or our Parish office at 609-259-3391.

The 15 PROMISES of the VIRGIN MARY FOR THOSE WHO PRAY THE ROSARY

- 1 Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the rosary, shall receive signal graces.
- 2 I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the rosary.
- 3 The rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
- 4 It will cause virtue and good works to flourish. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
- 5 The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the rosary shall not perish.
- 6 Whoever shall recite the rosary devoutly, shall never be conquered by misfortune.
- 7 Whoever shall have a true devotion for the rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
- 8 Those who are faithful to recite the rosary shall have, during their life and at their death, the light of God.
- 9 I shall deliver from purgatory those who have been devoted to the rosary.
- 10 The faithful children of the rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in heaven.
- 11 You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the rosary.
- 12 All those who propagate the holy rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
- 13 All the advocates of the rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of death.
- 14 All who recite the rosary are my sons, and brothers of my only son Jesus Christ.
- 15 Devotion of my rosary is a great sign of predestination.

Mary, Queen of the Holy Rosary, pray for us

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

*Ecce Deus adjuvat me, et Dominus susceptor est animæ meæ:
averte mala inimicis meis,
et in veritate disperde illos,
Protector meus, Domine.*

Behold, God is my helper,
and the Lord is the protector of my soul:
turn back the evils upon my enemies,
and cut them off in Thy truth,
O Lord, my protector. [Ps. 53:6-7]

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, the Introit sets the tone for Holy Mass with the assurance that God is helper and protector of our souls, repulsing the assaults of the evil one. Evil is falsehood, not abiding in truth. Satan is a murderer from the beginning, and the 'father of lies' [cf. JN 8:44] – and so are all in league with him. We begin Mass today crying out for deliverance from evil.

The Epistle is from 1st Corinthians, and the admonishment is clear – not to engage in anything evil, for this puts us in league with the evil one. Paul catalogues several specific evils: covetousness, idolatry, fornication, ingratitude. All of these were evils in which the Israelites [wandering in the desert] indulged, as chronicled in Exodus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy – the 23,000 mentioned as having died was the punishment meted out by God to those who committed the חטא העֶגְלָה [hēt' ha'ēggel = 'the sin of the calf'], the idolatry and abominations committed before the 'golden calf' [cf. Ex 32:4, Ex 32:26-28, Num 25:1-9]. Paul drawing this parallel with the church at Corinth; they were the sinful Israelites of his time; not very complementary regarding them, but their behavior deserved it. They cannot participate in the Lord's Supper, while still 'feasting' in sin. The Gospel shows us the sacred humanity of Our Lord, being one of the times we see Him weep. The people of His day do not receive His message [completely], and they do not reform their lives. Jesus sees them surrounded by destruction as if it were the present moment – a characteristic of the divine. He enters the temple area and cleanses it of the debauchery that was occurring. People who traveled great distances to fulfill their religious duties frequently were subjected to "price-gouging." Thus, Jesus refers to His Father's house being reduced to a den of thieves. And indeed, in 70 A.D., the Roman authorities laid waste to the temple, so that there was not left 'a stone upon a stone.' The temple would never be rebuilt – but Jesus Christ is the Temple of the new and everlasting covenant.

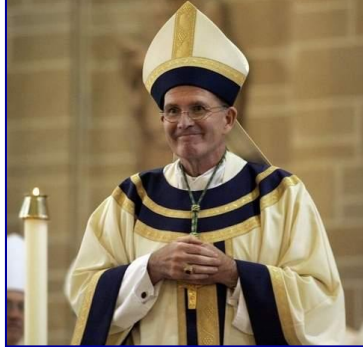

The month of July featured several special Carmelite feasts, including Saint Elijah [20th], Saint Teresa of the Andes [13th], Saints Louis and Zélie Martin – the parents of St. Thérèse – 12th], and the Martyrs of Compiègne [17th], among others. However, it was on July 16th that the principal feast of the Order was celebrated – the feast of the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel. The Brown Scapular is a powerful sacramental; it is a sign of devotion to Mary and a pledge of her maternal protection. She is exemplar of devotion to Christ in the contemplative life. We shall enjoy the protection of Our Lord while we are secure under the mantle of her protection.

To Jesus Christ be all glory forever!

"What do you think serving God involves - other than avoiding evil, keeping his commandments, and being occupied with the things of God as best we can?"

~ letter of OHF S. John of the Cross [Juan de Yepes y Álvarez, 1542-1591] O.C.D., C.,D.

A "Bouquet of Good Works" for Bishop O'Connell

Bishop O'Connell will be celebrating the 15th Anniversary of his Episcopal Ordination on July 30, 2025.
