Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers;
all things were created through him and for him.

He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the Diocese of Trenton Abuse Hotline: 888-296-2965 or via email at abuseline@dioceseoftrenton.org.

A Note From Our Pastor
Very Rev. Michael Wallack

My Dear Parishioners,

So often we can be overwhelmed by the evil in the world but we can find comfort in our Lord. This week we hear some great advice from Moses in our first reading from Deuteronomy; he said, "If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep His commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul." This reminds us to be loyal to our Lord even despite the things going on around us.

Our Lord reiterates what Moses said in a similar way in our Gospel by having the scholar repeat what was written in the law. He said, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

Personal holiness is key in order to follow our Lord and live with an integrity of faith. We can actually affect the world in a positive way by being as holy as we can be and actively choosing to find peace in conforming to God's will. There is an amazing peace in doing God's will and choosing to add to the good in the world instead of the corporate sense of sin. This will help us to work with God's grace and be more open to saying yes to Him.

Peace, Fr. Mike

THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

READINGS:
1 PET 3:8-15
Mt 5:20-24

V. Praised be Jesus Christ... R. Now and forever!

Exáudi Dómine vocem meam, qua clamávi ad te: Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I have cried to Thee:
Adjutor meus esto, ne derelínquas me, be Thou my helper, forsake me not, neque despicias me, Deus salutaris meus. Nor do Thou despise me, O God, my Savior. [Ps. 26:1]

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, the Introit sets the theme of our dependence on God – He can do for us that we cannot do for ourselves – namely, to preserve us unto life everlasting. It is a plaintive cry of someone who is in distress, and fortunately knows to Whom to turn. Our Epistle of today is a difficult for the human being – we are kind of wired for “eye for an eye.” Note how St. Peter tells us something rather different. We may suffer evil, but we are not to return it. Quite the opposite, we are called to render good to those who give us evil. This is a tough part of the Christian life, but essential, if one is to be a true follower of Jesus. Peter reminds us that the Lord will set Himself against evildoers – it is not in our preserve to do so. We have to trust the balance of justice and mercy that only God is qualified to mete out. The Gospel continues with the theme that we are to behave better than those of civil and Church authority, if they are behaving badly. Those who bear the name ‘Christian’ must be above the normal human condition in terms of justice. As in the case of the Epistle, we are bidden to seek out peace, even if it pains us. Our righteousness is to transcend that of the ordinary, if we are to be fully and authentically considered to be children of God. The Carmelite life is one of deep and profound prayer, a life that begs God to send us all peace and reconciliation. We pray and sacrifice for all who simply cannot or will not pray for themselves or for the good of humanity – we beg God that the world is not lost through sinful stubbornness of those who ignore the teaching of today’s readings.

Throughout his life, Fr. Titus Brandsma O.Carm. was a man of forgiveness and reconciliation, even in the most complicated of situations. When he was Assistant Press Officer of the Catholic Press, he had to face the political instability predicated on the rise of the Nazi movement. Fr. Titus always demonstrated a willingness for dialogue, open to the pleas of all. Through this, he earned the nickname “the reconciler.” Inevitably, through his resistance to the evil of Nazism, Fr. Titus was captured and sent to Dachau, the notorious concentration camp, where he was murdered by a lethal injection. Pope Francis canonized him a saint May 15, 2022. May Fr. Titus pray for us all to be heroic in virtue, always willing to forgive and to be reconciled.

To Jesus Christ be all glory!

Lord, nothing here below can comfort me, neither creation, nor Heaven, nor earth, nor men, nor angels, nothing can give me the joy, the peace that I have lost in losing you, my God.

~ Quote of S. Mary of Jesus Crucified [Mariam Baouardy ‘The Little Arab’, 1846 -1878], OCD, V.

NOVENA PRAYER TO SAINT ANNE MOTHER OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

NINE-DAY NOVENA TO BE PRAYED JULY 17 - JULY 25 (The Feast of Saint Anne is Saturday, July 26, 2025)

Glorious Saint Anne, filled with compassion for those who invoke you, and with love for those who suffer, burdened with the weight of my troubles, I kneel before you and humbly beg you to take the present petition I bring to you under your maternal protection.

Ask your daughter Mary to intercede for me and to bring my petition to the feet of Jesus so that He may answer my request. Keep interceding for me until my request is granted.

(Ask for your request in silence)

Above all, obtain for me the grace of one day seeing my God face to face, and praising Him with you and Mary and all the saints, through all eternity. Amen.

Good Saint Anne, mother of Her who is our life, our sweetness and our hope, pray to Her for me and obtain my request. (Repeat three times)

Pray for us Saint Anne, Who have given life to the Immaculate Mother of God.
O God, who granted Saint Anne the grace to become the mother of Her who gave birth to your only Son, grant that we, who keep her in remembrance, may obtain Her protection.
Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

(Saint Anne, the Grandmother of Our Lord, is the Patron Saint of mothers, women in labor, those praying for the gift of a child, and grandparents.)
