Today, the Diocese of Trenton rejoices and gives thanks to God for the election of our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV. We are confident that under his leadership, the Church will continue to grow in unity, love, and service to all humanity.

As we welcome Pope Leo XIV, let us pray for his strength and guidance as he undertakes the sacred responsibility of shepherding the global Catholic community. May the Holy Spirit inspire him in his mission to bring peace, justice and the light of Christ to every corner of the world. A Note From Our Pastor

Very Rev. Michael Wallack

My Dear Parishioners,

It has been a wonderful week! On Thursday, Cardinal Robert Francis Prevost became the 266th Successor of Saint Peter, taking the name Pope Leo XIV. We pray for our new Holy Father and celebrate the first American-born Pope. Please see the message from our Bishop on this page.

This past Friday our Eighth Grade Religious Education students received the Sacrament of Confirmation. Congratulations to our Confirmandi and their families! I am grateful to Mrs. Lauren Walters, her catechists and to the families who have prepared our young adults for Confirmation.

This weekend we celebrate Mother's Day and I would like to offer all of our Mothers a very heartfelt prayer of blessing. I hope all of our Moms know how special they are to us. We remember in a special way those who enjoy the presence of God already and have journeyed to the other side of life. May all of our Moms know how much we cherish them.

Many of us hopefully, have learned the joy of being loved by our mothers and our families. Pope Francis once said, "Joy is the certainty of being loved. And we're loved by God himself, whose love cannot change, whose love cannot let us down. Ever."

Joy, however, is possible in every situation, because it comes from the certainty that, when all is said and done, we are infinitely loved. And Jesus tells us that in the Gospel this weekend. He says: "I know my sheep and they follow me. I give them eternal life and they shall never perish." And then, in one of the most wonderful lines in the Bible, He says: "No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

Peace, Fr. Mike

A Mother's Day Prayer to Our Lady

Mary, on this day when we honor all mothers, we turn to you.

We thank the Lord whom you serve for the great gift of motherhood.

Never has it been known that anyone who sought your intercession was left unaided by Grace.

Dear Mother, thank you for your "Yes" to the invitation of the angel, which brought heaven to earth and changed human history. You opened yourself to God's word and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.

Dear Mother, intercede for all of our mothers. Ask your Divine Son to give them the grace of surrendered love, so that they could join with you in giving their own "Fiat."

May they find daily strength to say yes to the call to the sacrificial love-the very heart of the vocation of motherhood. May their love and witness be a source of great inspiration for all of us called to follow your Son.

On this Mothers Day, Mother of the Word Incarnate, pray for us who have recourse to you. Amen.

We are grateful to our Sacred Music Director Peter Carter, our Schola Cantorum, and our Choristers for today's beautiful Sacred Music! Beginning on Easter and throughout Paschaltide, the Vidi Aquam is chanted at the beginning of the Sunday, 12:30pm Traditional Latin Mass during the Sprinkling Rite, instead of the Asperges Me:

Vidi aquam egredientem de templo, a latere dextro, alleluia: et omnes, ad quos pervenit aqua ista, salvi facti sunt, et dicent, alleluia, alleluia.

I saw water flowing from the right side of the temple, alleluia; and all they to whom that water came were saved, and they shall say, alleluia, alleluia.

Questions and Answers on the Traditional Latin Mass by Rev. H. Todd Carter

Why don't the names of the Sundays at the Traditional Latin Mass always match the names of the Sundays of the other Parish Masses?

The Traditional Latin Mass follows the Traditional Liturgical Calendar, while the Parish Masses follow the newer Liturgical Calendar. While there are many similarities, there are some differences of which to be mindful. The Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter seasons all occur at the same time. However, many of the Sundays have different names, such as right now, during the Easter Season when the Traditional calendar names the Sundays after Easter as those "After Easter", while new calendar numbers the Sundays "Of Easter". Other differences may include different feast days for certain Saints or Masses of Our Lord or the Blessed Mother. The Saint John the Baptist Parish calendar that was offered to parishioners in January lists the feasts for both calendars for every day of the year.

Lunch Convivium

There is no Convivium today as it is Mother's Day. Please join us downstairs in the Church Hall after Mass next Sunday for our weekly lunch Convivium. There is no charge, and it is a great opportunity for fellowship and fun! Our upcoming Lunch Convivium schedule is as follows:

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

READINGS:
1 Pt 2:11-19
Jn 16:16-22

V. Praised be Jesus Christ... R. Now and forever!

*Jubiláte Deo, omnis terra, alleluja:
psalmum dicite nómini ejus, allelúja,
date glóriam laudi ejus, allelúja, allelúja, allelúja.*

*Shout with joy to God, all the earth, alleluia:
sing ye a psalm to His Name, alleluia,
Give glory to His praise alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
[Ps 65:1-2]*

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, we experience a renewed energy of joy, a reminder of the glory of that first Easter morning. The Introit [opening song] from Psalm 65 sets the tone – a shout, a psalm, and a praise of His glory. We are human beings, subject to the culture around us; perhaps our enthusiasm has waned a bit – we are reminded that the Easter season is ongoing. So, let us recharge our batteries!

In the Epistle of today, Peter admonishes us not to give in to our baser nature, as these adversely affect our souls. We are all to speak the Good News of Jesus Christ in the world; we have plenty of metaphorical “Gentiles” out there who could see our good works and glorify our Heavenly Father – if we were accused of being Christians, would the accusers find enough evidence to convict us? We need courage, serving our neighbors, and boldly proclaiming our joy! The Gospel of today initially baffles some of the disciples, and it offers contrasts. They will not see Jesus, and then they will see Him. He is returning to the Father – so what does this mean? Is Jesus going somewhere, and then coming right back after checking in? We must remember that Jesus is fully divine – as God, He knows that time ultimately having no claim on eternal destiny. Our Lord will return soon enough, at the end of the world, which is, indeed, a minor consideration when considered against eternity. But the world will rejoice – the Gospel will give this to the world; what the disciples do not yet fully appreciate, their message will be the means of the world’s joy. They will have sorrow at Our Lord’s ascension; their eternal reward will be joy beyond the imagining of the human mind.

The Carmelite perspective is to always abide in the joy of the resurrection, irrespective as to what the circumstances of this life may hold for us. Our Holy Mother Teresa counsels that when we accept what happens to us and make the best of it, we are praising God. We see the finish line, and we keep our eyes on the prize. Submission of ourselves to the holy and adorable will of God is the surest way to Heaven. We stumble, we fall, as brown scapulars are not bullet-proof vests; however, we confess, amend, and press on to the voice of the Good Shepherd. To Jesus Christ be all glory, alleluia!

“O my soul, submit to the will of your God; it is best for you.

Serve Him and trust in His mercy;

when by penance you have won some little claim to pardon for your sins,

He will ease your pain. Do not try to rejoice until you have suffered.

But, O my true King and Lord, I am incapable even of this, unless You sustain me by Your power and majesty.

With Your help, I can do all things.

~ from “Exclamations of the Soul to God”, #6.
