A Note From Our Pastor

Very Rev. Michael Wallack

My Dear Parishioners,

The Church, like a good Mother, is very wise. She gives us a full seven weeks of the Easter season. We need this extended time to reflect on those lessons Christ taught us in His passion and Resurrection. Plants have to spend time outside to gradually absorb the sunlight and transform it into nutrients. Just so, our souls have to spend time basking in the light of Christ's revelation, so that we can absorb the grace God wants to give us.

Today especially, we are reminded of the New Commandment that Christ gave us the day before He suffered. We are brought back to that Last Supper, when Jesus was gathered with His closest companions and opened His heart to them. It was the night when His heart overflowed with love as it never had before. It was the night when He revealed the secret identity of every Christian, the distinguishing mark: "This is how all will know that you are my disciples," He said, "if you have love for one another." And not just any kind of love, but Christ-like love: "I give you a new commandment... As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."

Peace,

Fr. Mike

alleluia: et omnes, ad quos pervenit aqua ista, salvi
facti sunt, et dicent, alleluia, alleluia.*

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

READINGS:

JAS 1:17-21

JN 16:5-14

V. Praised be Jesus Christ... R. Now and forever!

*Cantáte Dómino cánticum novum, allelúja:
quia mirabilia fecit. allelúja:
ante conspéctum géntium revelávit justítiam suam.
Allelúja, allelúja, allelúja.*

*Sing ye to the Lord a new canticle, alleluia:
for the Lord hath done wonderful things, alleluia,
He hath revealed His justice to the Gentiles.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. [Ps 97:1-2]*

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, we continued the renewed energy of joy from last week, basking in the glory of that first Easter morning. The Introit [opening song] from Psalm 97 underscores the newness of creation in the resurrection of Jesus – we are encouraged to glorify the wondrous things He has accomplished by means of our newness of attitude and song. If salt loses its flavor, what use is it [cf. MT 5:13]. We who are Christians should be recognized by the “flavor” of our joy, in front of all of humanity, particularly to those who are not believers. We must glorify the risen Christ by our very lives, and in all situations.

The Epistle of today shifts to James. We are reminded that God is the Father of light – there is no darkness in the lives of those who walk in the light of Jesus Christ as “word” [cf. JN 1:1] and “truth” [cf. JN 14:6]. Christ is the first of many brothers and sisters under the Father. James cautions the Christian to be different from others in the world, which is replete with noise and hostility. We should listen more than we speak – this gets us to hear the Master’s voice better; and anger is a powerful negative emotion – and anything that is negative is contrary to the fulfillment of the righteousness of God.

The Gospel of today sees Jesus continuing to prepare the apostles for His impending return to the Father. The separation causes sorrow for them, but Jesus points to the good of the fulfillment of the manifestation of the Trinity, when the Advocate comes and empowers them for ministry. Jesus tells them that the “prince of this world [the devil] is already judged,” and they shall be kept strong in the faith against the wiles of this “prince,” by the overwhelming truth that the Spirit will impart to them.

Carmelite prayer can never be simply a routine appointment that we make with God – it is so much more than that because of the action of the Holy Spirit in our lives. The Spirit of God who knows the depths of God indwells us, speaking in the heart of each one of us, giving us knowledge of God. We respond through an ever-growing sense of the presence of God and an increasing acceptance of the action of God in our own lives, and in the whole of creation [cf. LK 1:34-37]. To Jesus Christ be all glory, alleluia!

“A praise of glory is a soul of silence that remains like a lyre under the mysterious touch of the Holy Spirit so that He may draw from it divine harmonies.”
